

Manage class is the controller class which mediate the response to the user input whether to display a normal monitor window or a graphical one.

Display msg if stock code is not found.

